

Gastroenterological fees - self-paying patients

Gastroscopy	250 €
Colonoscopy	600 €
Rectoscopy	150 €
Ultrasound (Sonography)	250 €
Intravenous therapy (excluded price of medication)	20 €
Vitamine C IV therapy	24 €
Endoscopic argon plasma coagulation	350 €
Endoscopic hemorrhoid ligation	250 €
Endoscopic dilation of intestine stenosis using balloon	450 €
Endoscopic dilation of intestine stenosis using bougie	450 €
Endorectal ultrasonography	250 €
Colonoscopy with polypectomy	1 000 €
Enteroscopic examination of parts of small intestine	750 €
Endoscopic mucosal resection	1 250 €
Capsule endoscopy	1 200 €
Fecal Transplantation	750 €
Fecal Transplantation - surcharge for insured patients	72 €

Fees for other services

Full examination by a gastroenterologist	250 €
Priority examination at the request of the patient	300 €
Advance payment before blood tests	120 €
Advance payment before histological examination	200 €
Blood tests before biological treatment	480 €
Analgo-sedation during endoscopic examination
(charged for these cases:
● no medical indication is found for necessary analgosedation
● analgosedation on patient request
Recovery room fee*	100 €
Recovery room fee*	30 €

* these items are paid by patients with insurance as well